

Designed to provide information necessary for families to create affordable and accessible community living situations for persons with developmental disabilities

Monday, May 2, 2pm – 4 pm (FREE)

Creating Real Homes for People with Disabilities

Val Schaffer, Nan Carle, and Invited Guests

Presenters will discuss creating “real homes for real people” in tough economic times. Individuals with disabilities, their families and people who provide support will have an opportunity to learn about shared living and community housing models available locally, nationally and internationally.

What is AZ Community Living Now: SIX trainings from January to May 2011 on housing related issues for people with disabilities and families. Taped sessions, training materials, and updates are available at <http://azcommunitylivingnow.org>

Where: 5 video conference sites across the state (Tucson, Phoenix, Flagstaff, Yuma, Sierra Vista) – locations and directions available at website or by calling (520) 626-0442

RSVP is required to reserve a space at a site. For info on sites and to RSVP: (520) 626-0442 or ucedd@email.arizona.edu

For updates and to view taped sessions, go to <http://azcommunitylivingnow.org>

Join the conversation on Facebook

For more info or to request a disability-related accommodation, contact Lynne Tomasa at 520-626-7823 or ltomasa@email.arizona.edu

